

SHUTTLE

The Scope Shuttle is the connection element of the user to the system and it is designed to provide optimal passage through the entire Length. The Shuttle can be connected and disconnected from the lifeline at any point, and it has a double locking mechanism that guarantees the highest degree of safety.
